

ABSTRACT

The present invention relates to metallic containers for food and beverage products, and more specifically, a substantially metallic container with a microwavable transparent portion and a selectively removable metallic lid, wherein the container can be used in a conventional microwave oven.

J:\1604\470\Patent App 2.wpd